The Garden Terrace Room our perfectly redesigned signature location, offers expansive windows, sparkling chandeliers, and state-of-the-art lighting — lending a modern elegance to any special occasion. Outside the main ballroom, a beautiful tent gives guests a chance to enjoy cocktails outside while taking in the lovely surroundings. The Gardens frame the space in magnificent displays, accenting the atmosphere with exciting bursts of color.

Capacity: 100 to 330 guests
Facility Fee: $2,750 to $4,000

The Lillian and Amy Goldman Stone Mill features a river's edge location, rustic stone walls and reclaimed wood floors for a warm and inviting atmosphere. On the outdoor terrace, an invigorating view of the Bronx River creates a perfect natural backdrop. Newly refurbished, the vintage Stone Mill offers a paramount combination of historic charm and modern comforts.

Capacity: 50 to 100 guests
Facility Fee: $1,500 to $2,250

Hudson Garden Grill—the first full-service dining destination to open on the grounds of The New York Botanical Garden. Low banquet seating, an expansive walnut-topped bar, and an open kitchen designed for exhibition cooking represent the vision of Bentel & Bentel, the award-winning architectural firm behind the restaurant's design.

Capacity: 20 to 60 guests
Facility Fee: $1,000 to $1,500

Enid A. Haupt Conservatory, a grand Victorian-style crystal palace, is made up of eleven interconnected glasshouse galleries, which are arranged in a symmetrical, rectilinear "C" shape around two elegant pools.

Capacity: 400 to 1,000 guests (cocktails only)
Facility Fee: $35,000

Conservatory Tent, a dramatic setting for gala receptions, formal dinners, corporate outings, and elegant weddings, adjacent to the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory.

Capacity: 300 to 800 guests
Facility Fee: $25,000
