The New York Botanical Garden is a showplace of nature in every season and offers a variety of unique spaces as a backdrop for your special event. Indoors and out, you will find some of the world's most spectacular settings- from our historic Victorian glasshouse, cascading waterfall, and 50 acres of forest, to rolling hills, wetlands, and stunning plant collections.

With easy access from Manhattan and all points in the tri-state area, innovative dining experiences from Constellation Culinary Group, and the finest service and amenities, the Garden is one of New York City's premier destinations for corporate events, daytime meetings, fundraisers, grand galas, convention receptions and more.

When you host at NYBG, you get more than an unforgettable event. You also support the Garden's efforts as a distinguished advocate for the natural world.
