THE LILLIAN & AMY GOLDMAN STONE MILL

We can't wait to host your wedding at The New York Botanical Garden's idyllic Stone Mill. Built in 1840 by the Lorillard family, it has been designated both a New York City and a National Historic Landmark. The building's rustic, exposed walls and reclaimed wood floors create a warm atmosphere perfect for an intimate affair. On the outdoor terrace, an invigorating view of the Bronx River meandering past majestic evergreen trees creates a perfect natural backdrop for your big day. The newly refurbished, farmhouse chic Stone Mill offers a paramount combination of historic charm and modern comforts.
